We Challenge the Future

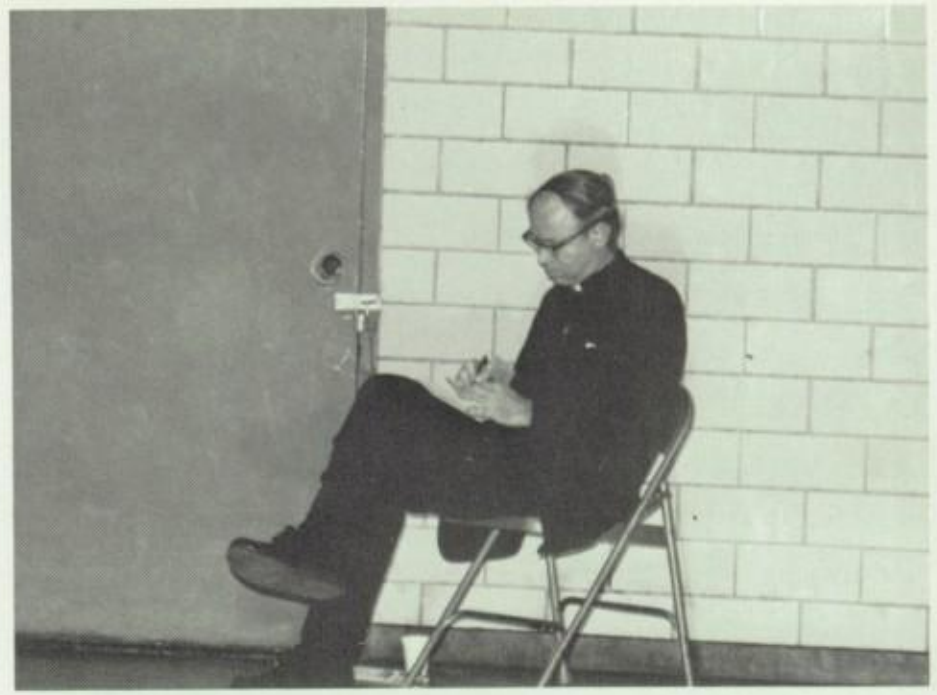

Rector

The dedication of Fr. James F. Keenan is evidenced by his long association with Xavier. Since 1963, Fr. Keenan has been giving of himself to our school in many ways. He was a teacher and club moderator (including yearbook) before he became a member of the administration.

As our Rector and President, Father has very high goals set for Xavier. One of these goals is to keep our motto of "Beyond Academic Excellence" by strengthening our present academic record and expanding our sense of community.

Fr. Keenan's association with Xavier has been long and happy; at the end of his present term he will have lived here longer than anywhere else, and looks forward to many more happy and successful years.

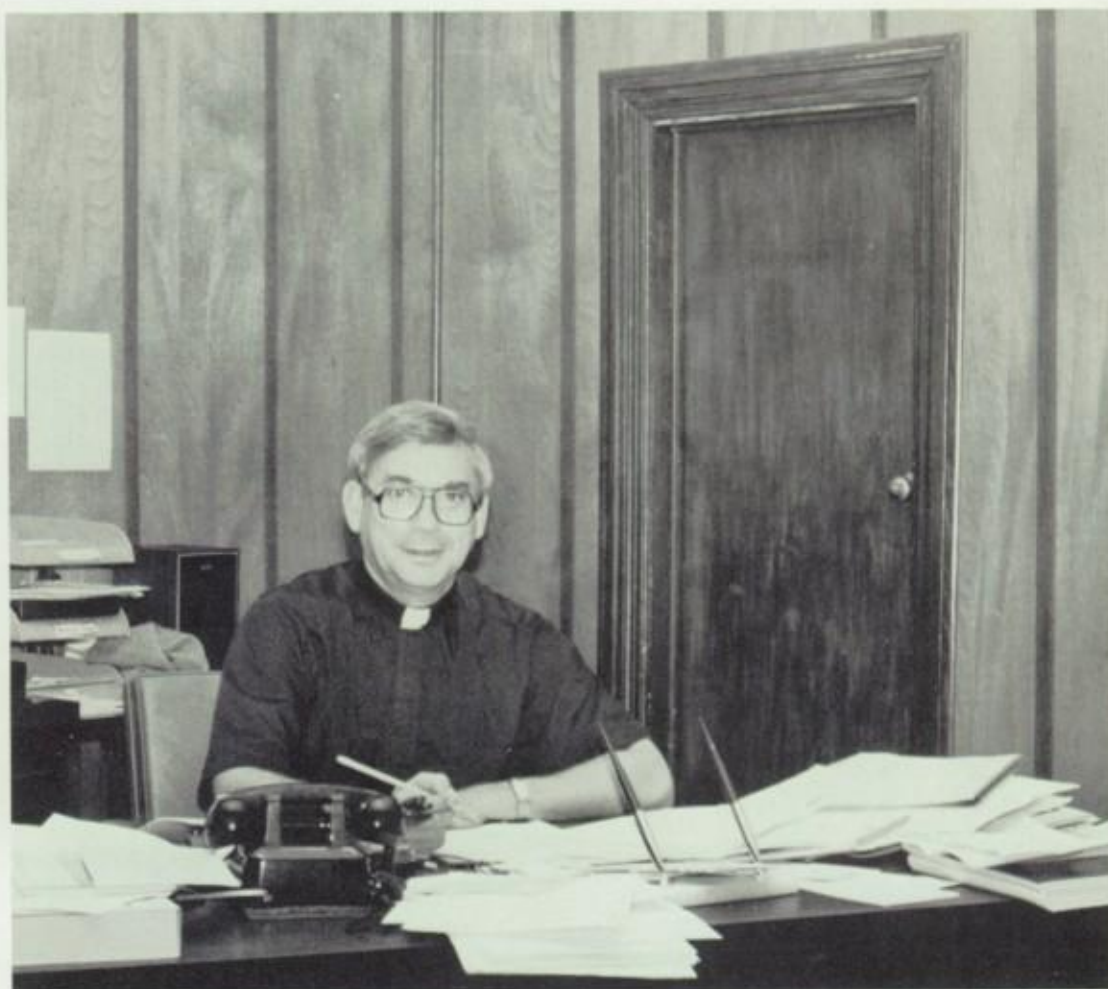

Headmaster

Fr. Papaj arrived at Xavier just this year after leaving Canisius H.S. in Buffalo. He decided to join the Society of Jesus in 1957. He continued his education at Bellarmine College, Plattsburgh, N.Y. then studied Philosophy at Loyola Seminary in 1964. He started his Regency teaching at Canisius H.S. In Father's years of teaching he has been moderator of both the Speech and Debate Teams and Students in France for Summer School. Father went to Woodstock College, Md. continuing in N.Y. for his studies in Theology. Ordained in 1970 he has studied at Teachers' College, Columbia U.

Fr. Papaj has a history of administrative work. He worked at Regis High School as administrative assistant (1972-1973), then as principal of Canisius H.S. (1973-1979), and to McQuaid Jesuit H.S. as community administrator until 1980. Fr. Headmaster hopes to stay here for quite a long time. Although it is too soon to tell, he wants to establish himself as a person who wishes to further Xavier's academic education.

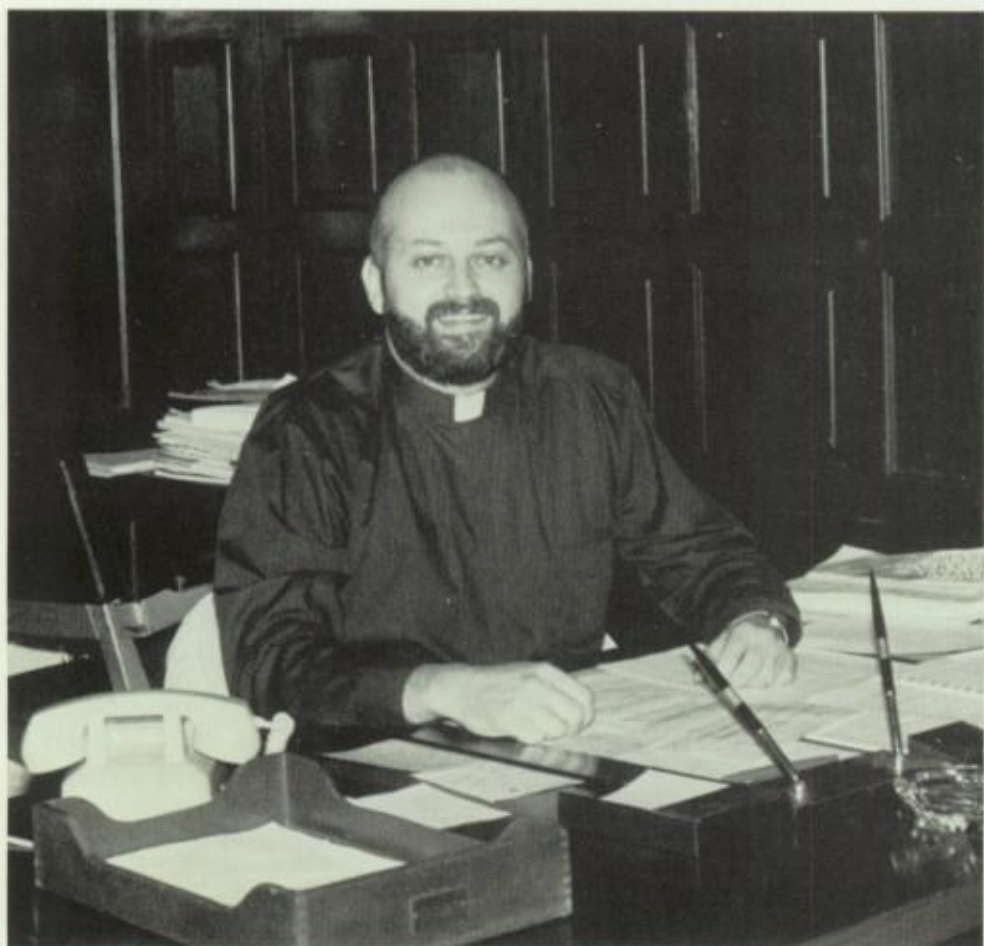

Father was pleased to find a happy warm rapport between students and faculty. He was also impressed by the school's size in proportion to others, and is especially amazed by the complexity of the physical makeup. But Father feels we overcome this by our sense of community both among the students and faculty.

So we wish to give Father a most warm welcome to Xavier. We hope that he has a very happy and successful life here at Xavier. Good luck, Father Papaj.

FR. JOSEPH F. BURKE, S.J.
ASSISTANT HEADMASTER

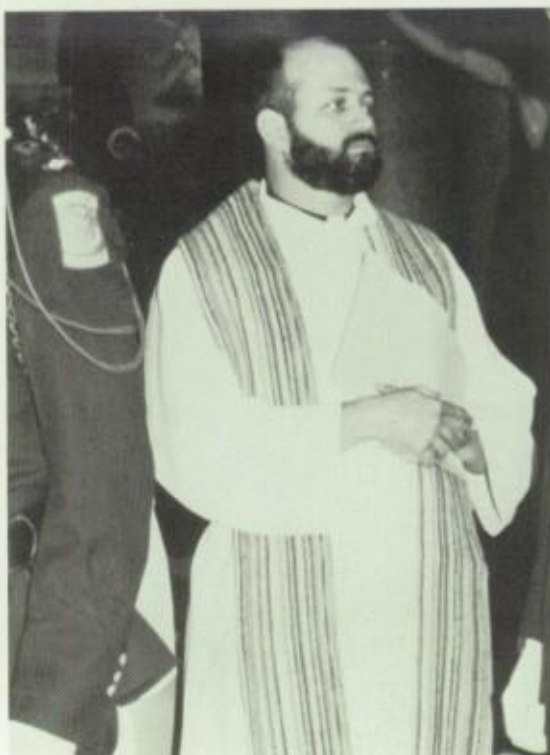

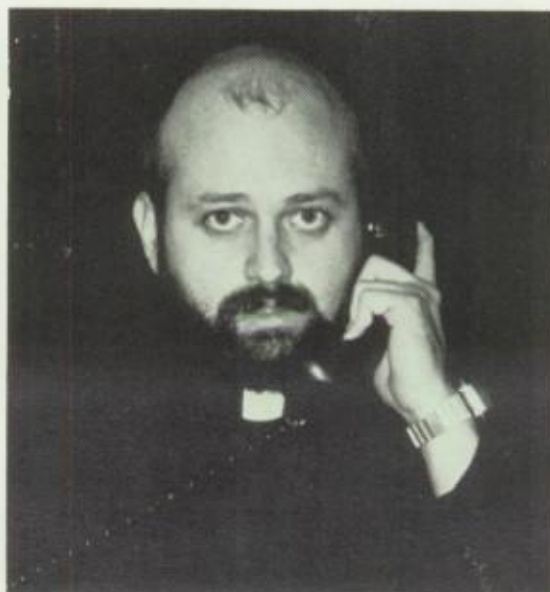

MR. FRANKLIN D. GREGORY
DEAN OF STUDENTS

Father Joseph Burke can best be described as an exemplary individual. His dedication to the field of education is shown through outstanding accomplishments, such as Department Chairman and Assistant Chaplain. As Assistant Headmaster at Xavier, Father is known for his kind, but stern, leadership qualities.

Father Burke is a man who gives his best to Xavier; hopefully, Xavier will give its best to him.

Mr. Gregory's life began in Jersey City. There he attended St. Peter's Elementary and High Schools and continued his education at Fordham University.

The Dean started as Registrar and Assistant Headmaster at Brooklyn Prep. He came here to fill the position of Dean of Students and is now in his ninth year. Although Mr. "G" does not like to reprimand people, he said, "I have to do what I have to do."

JAMES E. DONLAN 1956-1981

TEACHER — HUSBAND — COLLEAGUE

A CARING INFLUENCE ON XAVIER

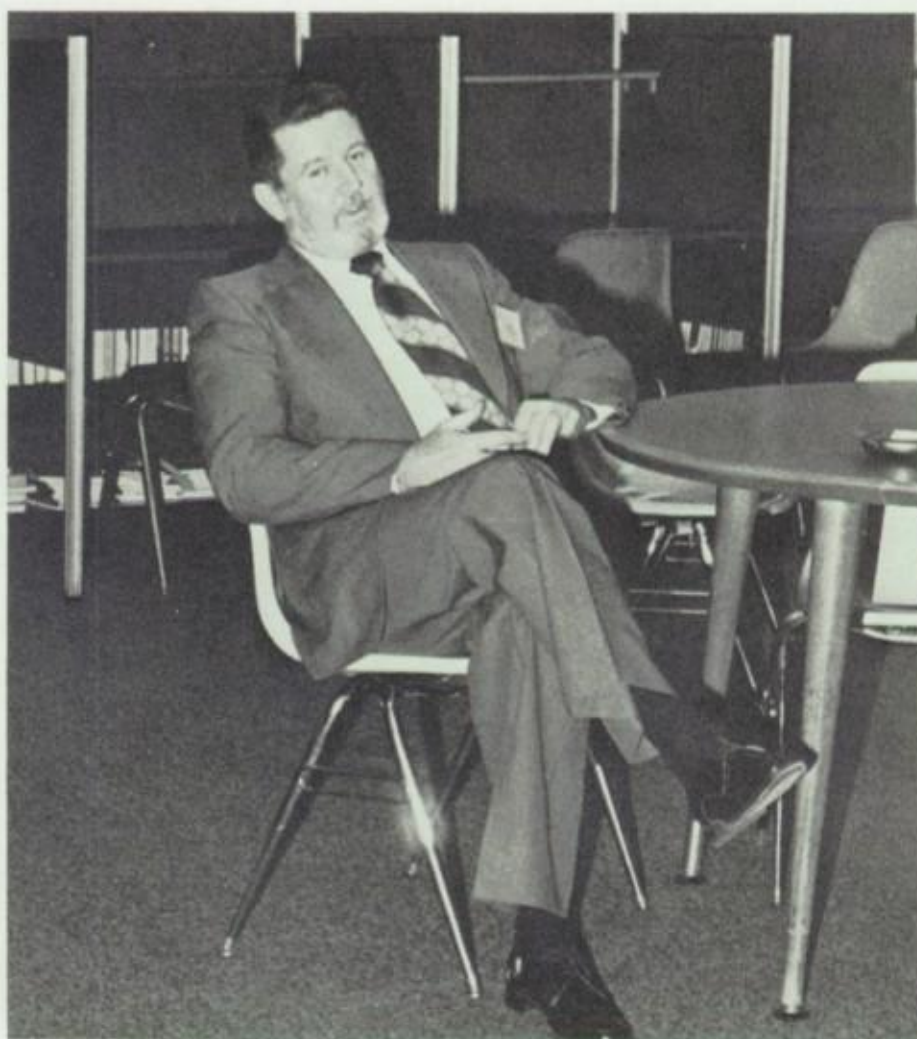

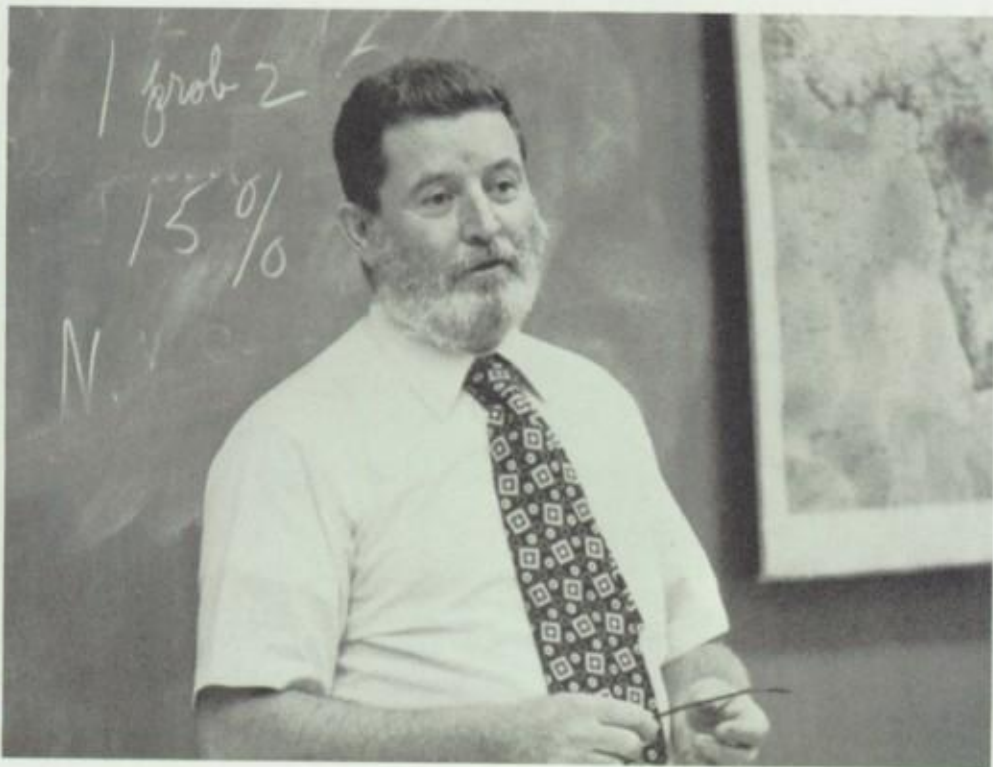

A quarter of a century is a substantial part of a person's life. And when these years are devoted to working closely with people they take on a special aura.

Mr. James E. Donlan began his teaching career at Xavier in September, 1956, and has been a member of the Social Studies Department for this entire period. He also taught English for a number of years, and when a Driver Education Program was introduced Mr. Donlan became the first instructor. Seniors soon came to experience what it meant to drive not only in Manhattan but also in areas of Brooklyn and Long Island. In recent years he has devoted time to those who were members of the Current Affairs Club.

Students and graduates may remember Mr. Donlan to be demanding. Most came to realize he is a man who had their interest at heart. He wanted each to work to his potential.

Outside the classroom, Mr. Donlan is one who goes out to others who are in need. He takes time to comfort, to visit students, faculty members, friends and alumni.

May the Lord bless Mr. James E. Donlan in a special way and strengthen him in the years ahead.

Community Day

Each year Xavier sets aside one day in September dedicated to leadership, unity, and new beginnings. This year's Community Day, held on Sept. 25, 1980, continued this important tradition. In one of the first assemblies of the year involving the entire student body, the Xavier Community welcomed the new Colonel, Philip McCaffery, and the President of the Xavier Council, Francis Caesar, as well as the officers of the Regiment and the members of the Council. A special sense of Xavier unity shines forth on this day which affects all students. We are grateful for the commitments accepted by our fellow students and the active support of the administration and faculty.

Student Council

Unlike special interest clubs and activities, the Student Council attempts to represent the student body at large. It develops ideas, makes suggestions, and run special events. It is the responsibility of each advisement group representative to inform his group of what is being proposed, suggested, planned as well as bring to the Council at large the reasonable concern of those he represents. Council activities have included raising monies, foods, and clothing for those less fortunate than we, planning "dress down" days, exchanges with other schools, the senior prom, and offering a forum for the presenting of suggestions for particular activities and events and the student personnel to draw from for particular school events.

Xavier Regiment

The Xavier Regiment headed by C/Col. Philip McCaffery is steeped in the Xavier tradition. The ROTC Program enables the student to grow in leadership, responsibility, and dedication. Guided by Sgm. Raymond Carney and his dedicated staff of faculty and senior officers, the Regiment is a proud and fitting representative of the Xavier community. Each year the various companies and teams exhibit their quality precision participating in parades, reviews, and competitions. A special thanks should go to those whose efforts ensured the success of this year.

X-Squad

The X-Squad, the precision drill team at Xavier, is the most elite unit within the regiment. It consists of seventeen of the finest cadets in the school, and is headed this year by C/Major Eloy Echeguren and C/CPT. William Sheils. The team has a long standing tradition of excellence, which has gained them the title of National Champions. The X-Squad is the only high school drill team that competes regularly on the college drill meet circuit. This success does not come easily, though; it requires hours of practice and total dedication. The winning tradition of the X-Squad is exemplified in the person of SFC Thomas Benford, the team's moderator, who with his inspiration and self-sacrifice, is an integral part of the squad.

Color Guard

(Kneeling): F. Falzon, F. Spinella. (Standing): M. Ross, L. Buzzerio, T. Evans, S. Gonzalez, M. Maggipinto, R. Romo, W. Rodriguez, N. DePalma, R. McCarthy, T. Siwinski.

The Color Guard has participated in the procession on Community Day, the Columbus Day parade, the Massing of the Colors at Rutgers, the Winter and Spring Reviews and the St. Patrick's Day parade. It has also gone to non-Xavier activities such as the anniversary of Life Magazine and the People's Festival 1980.

The highlight of the year for the Color Guard will be when they participate in the Middle Township High School Drill Meet, in which they have taken first place for two years in a row.

The Color Guard is commanded by C/Msg. Robert McCarthy and advised by C/Ltc. Wilfred Rodriguez and C/Maj. Tom Evans.

Military Affairs Club

(Kneeling): J. Moriarity, M. Dunne, R. Koljevina, M. Pontillo, M. Mooney, H. Kugaczski. (First Row): G. Eszterhas, D. Hepburn, F. Lopez, S. Tuero, J. Kryda. (Second Row): M. Pontillo, L. Pauka, J. Ingoldsby, A. O'Rourke, A. Roldan, A. Ross, G. Sumberaz, A. Roldan, M. Davalos, C. Hayes, E. Melendez, T. Swinski.

The Military Affairs Club has been in existence at Xavier High School for many years. The purpose of the club is to bring cadets of the regiment closer to a way of military life. M.A.C. has taken cadets to several bases for a first hand experience in a training field as soldiers of the near future. The club provides for military guest speakers and war games in classrooms as part of its activities. The president of the club this year is C/Maj. Echeguren. The Military Affairs Club extends a special thanks towards its moderator SGM. R. Carney for all the dedication and help he has extended to the cadets throughout the years.

Fathers' Club

R. Burke, Treasurer; J. Moran, President; J. Galligan, Secretary; J. Rinaldi, Sgt at Arms; T. Hiler, 2nd Vice-President; J. Lorenzo, 1st Vice-President

Rector's Advisory Board

(Sitting) Fr. J. Furniss, S.J., Fr. J. McDonald, S.J., Mr. P. McGowan, Mr. G. Murphy, Mr. P. Hoblin, Fr. J. Papaj, S.J., Mr. C. Connell, Jr., Fr. D. Fitzpatrick, S.J., Mrs. E. D'Agostino; (Standing) Mr. L. Tarpey, Mr. J. Kelly, Fr. J. Latella, S.J., Mr. M. Lewis, Mr. P. Defliese, Mr. B. Cox, Fr. J. Keenan, S.J., Mr. V. Lewis, Mr. J. Moran Absent: Mr. F.X. Bambury

Mothers' Club

Each year the combined and dedicated efforts of the Mothers and Fathers Clubs ensure the success of the year at Xavier. The parents generously give time, concern and moral support in their various fund raisings, such as the Open House, Card Party, Jewelry Sales, Bingo, the Xavier Ball, and the Block-X Dinner, to name a few. Without the conscientious efforts of the parents, along with Fr. Keenan and Fr. Furniss, Xavier could not confidently face the demands of the future.

French Club

Three years old and still "en bonne forme," the Cercle Français, headed by Ms. Lewis, continues to serve as a cultural club for those who need a place to "say it in French." The Club's recent activities include frequent viewings of some of France's best films, either at local theatres, or at the Alliance Française (French Institute); visits to expositions displaying the various artistic and cultural expressions of France, and of the French speaking world. By way of our monthly magazine, Chez Nous, Club members are afforded a glimpse into the lifestyles and customs of their francophone counterparts. Finally, one cannot ignore the Cercle's gastronomic adventures, either through its annual celebrations or its annual Christmas dinner in a reputable French restaurant. Undoubtedly, the key word is Bon Appétit!

(First Row) A. Santamaria, P. Leung, R. Kieffer, D. Tolliver; Second Row: M. Gambello, C. Ares, J. Ruggiero, D. Sze, J. McGannon.

German Club

The Deutscher Verein brings German culture closer to its members. The annual Christmas party was a hit, especially with the delicious Bratwurst, Pretzeln and Kuchen. This atmosphere of Gemutlichkeit is also evident in other activities such as German language practice and the playing of games where the students try to beat the Moderator at scrabble (in German, natürlich).

The annual spring celebration takes the club to the Alt Heidelberg restaurant in Yorkville to sample German specialties such as Sauerbraten and Jaegerschnitzel. Other club activities include group discussions and the viewing of German films in the original language, whenever possible.

The spirit of the German Club can best be summed up with the opening words of its theme song: "Wir sind eine grosse Familie."

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is an organization dedicated to promoting Spanish culture in Xavier. This is done mainly by means of posters on the Language bulletin boards. The Spanish Club hopes to make others aware that each Spanish-speaking country has its own customs.

Besides making posters, members of the Spanish Club view films, visit places such as the Spanish Institute, and eat at restaurants. There is also a Club Day, during which they have the school facilities to themselves. On this day each member brings in food indigenous to a particular Spanish-speaking country.

The moderator of this club is Mr. Dan Sullivan. The president is Victor Ruiz and the treasurer is Manny Reynoso; both are of senior year. The club is made up of students from all four years and the club is open to all, not just those of Spanish extraction.

International Exchange

FRENCH EXCHANGE: J. Houri, A. Santamaria, M. Gambello, B. Zeug, T. Farmer.

GERMAN EXCHANGE: L. Kast, A. Cunningham.

ITALIAN EXCHANGE: M. Tirabella, Fr. Aracich, S.J., Fr. Spardella, D. Carrierio, L. Evangelista. Absent: F. Chionchio.

Xavier presently has three International Exchange Programs in Europe with Jesuit secondary schools in Hamburg, Paris, and Rome. First initiated in 1972, the programs have as their goal mutual understanding between peoples of different cultures.

The one-on-one program enables students to live with their respective teenage host and his family as well as attend regular classes at the host school. Programs vary between five and six weeks abroad, with the same amount of time here in the U.S. for the European boys.

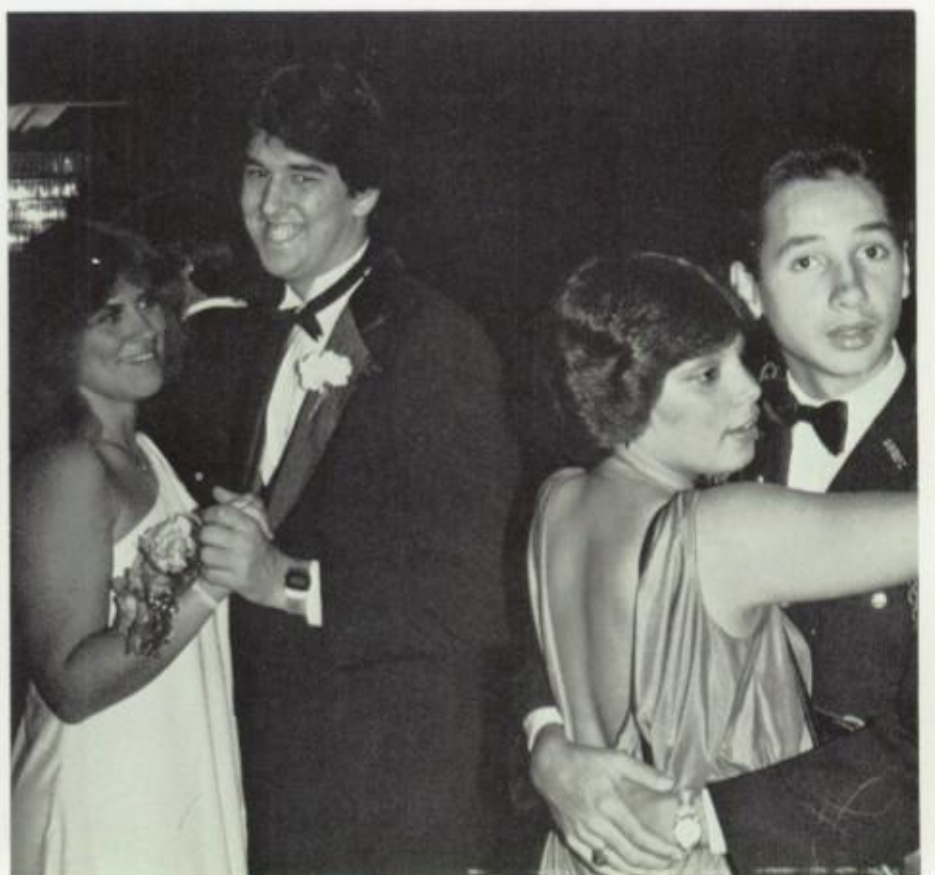

Xavier Ball

The Xavier Ball exemplifies the true tradition of the Xavier family. The Ball gathers the students, parents, faculty, and Administration from all four years. It helps to further the interrelationships of the students between years. But the best reason for the Ball is for the seniors to have a fine memory of Xavier and what it stands for.

The thirtieth Ball was marked by one special incident, there was no queen for the first time. All in all, the Ball was successful. The sit-down dinner was enjoyed by all, since it was a chance for parents, students, and faculty to get together and chat for an enjoyable evening.

So to the Fathers' Club, we give a warm thanks for they bring it all together and make it an enjoyable night. A special thanks goes to Mr. Boller for his organization of the seniors and the grand march.

Vanguard

The Vanguard is a service organization. This year it has made a special effort to aid its students in their initial adjustment to Xavier. This is done by offering each individual the opportunity to interact with fellow students from their own social and cultural backgrounds. The club has launched into various activities including a successful video presentation at the Xavier Open House. Other projects in the making are: a tutoring program of 300 students, various cultural shows in the library, ushering at church services, ordering of club jackets and sweaters, organization of trips, collecting money for the Block X Journal and other Xavier Society for the Blind, and a Christmas visit to St. Vincent's Hospital.

Miller, L. George, E. Melendez, C. Emmanuel

Student Events

The Student Events which is headed by Mr. Pesce is the group of fine young men who run all the Xavier dances, help at the basketball games and at the rallies. They represent the true Xavier spirit, because these men are always trying to please everyone. This year with the "New-Wave" craze the group tried to please everyone by mixing New-Wave, Rock and Disco together at the dances. The dances so far this year have been successful and we owe this group much gratitude.

(First Row) J. Vullo, D. Panetieri, J. Medina, Mr. L. Pesce, D. Minoli, G. Sveva; (Second Row) P. Eco, J. Mawe, M. Smith, F. Gonzalez, M. Ross, J. Gainfort, D. Abrigo, F. Gregal, P. Renda; (Back) G. Macaluso

Cheerleaders

(First Row) V. Soyer, T. Glasser, M. Scully, M. Keenan, M. Wynne; (Second Row) M. Gregory, M. Lanning, K. Bay, B. Latimer, G. Hindy, C. Martin, J. Mahone, L. D'Agostino, B. Tuite

Combine unselfish dedication, loyalty, generosity and many hours of hard work and you have a composite of what it is like to be a Xavier cheerleader. The girls are selected from competitive tryouts in September. The original group is composed of twenty lovely, enthusiastic, and talented young ladies. Practice is on the average of five hours a week from September through February. The primary objective of the group is to induce spirit and support for the Xavier teams for which they cheer.

The cheerleaders would like to express their gratitude to the football team for a terrific Thanksgiving day victory. They enjoyed being invited to support the soccer team in their city playoffs and they look forward to supporting a winning season for the Warriors.

Xavier would like to express a special thank you to our co-captains, Beth Latimer and Carol Martin. For four years they have generously extended their time, spirit, leadership and talents on behalf of the Xavier students.

Speech Team

The Xavier Speech Team offers students the opportunity to express themselves orally, and to learn such skills as poise, expression, gesturing and dramatics. Under the experienced guidance of Fr. Thomas Tigh, S.J., the team has competed in contests throughout the five boroughs in the National and Catholic Forensic leagues.

Team members have entered many different categories such as declamation (interpretation of well-known speeches), original oratory, extemporaneous (speaking on current newsworthy issues randomly assigned), reading and dramatics, and have won trophies in many of the contests.

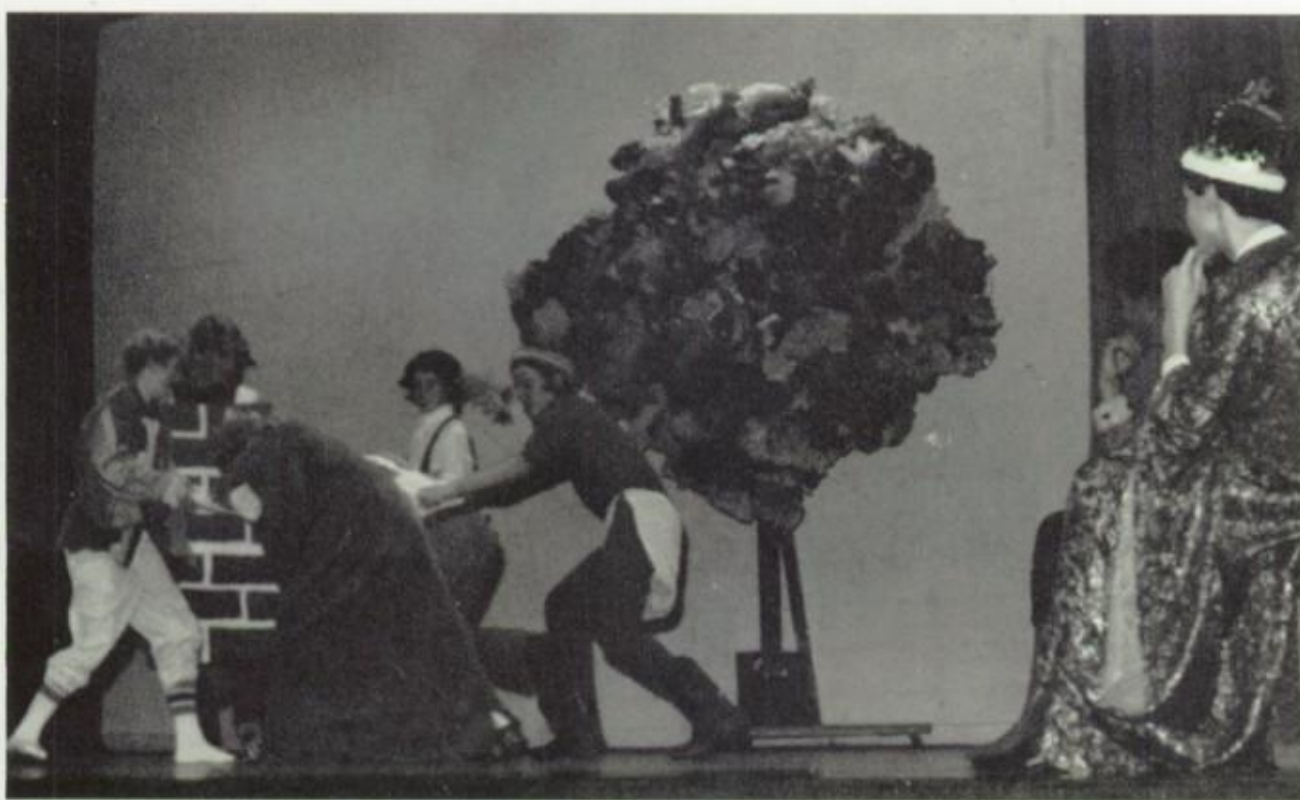

In November the team hosted a contest at Xavier where over 30 schools from New York City, Long Island and Westchester competed in five different categories. Hard work and dedication are the key to the team's growing success and reputation.

Underclassmen Drama Night

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

They call it a "play" because it's supposed to be fun. The long, hard weeks of practice are finally ended. The night has come, and the lights go down. Suddenly, the cast is on stage and the audience is ready and willing to support them.

On such an evening, what communicates itself mostly to the audience is the infectious humor of the cast. If the cast is having fun, that will cross the footlights to the audience, and they will be thus invited to participate. Certainly, this year's Underclassman Drama Night was a lot of fun. The underclassmen got together under the direction of Fr. Burns and presented us with a very fine evening's entertainment. They performed parts of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, with apologies to the Bard of Avon. They included three Broadway songs in the show and the result was a wondrous fantasy of an evening. Even if the grave of Mr. Shakespeare began to tremble and registered a six on the Richter scale, so what? The name of the game is fun, and when all is said and done, it is, after all, called a "play."

The Merchant of Venice

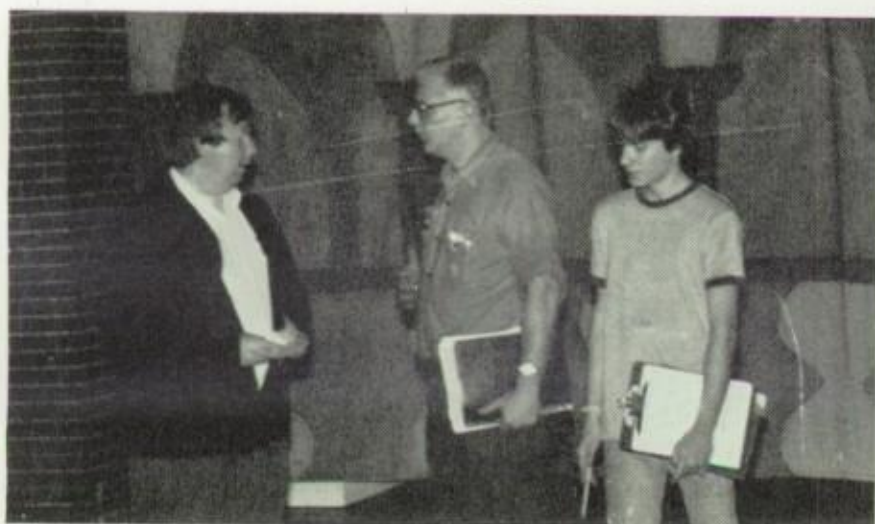

Xavier Dramatics Society

Ten weeks of rigorous rehearsing by the cast and a number of days/nights of hard work by the stage crew resulted in a production of The Merchant of Venice that was well worth the effort. From the highly praised portrayal of Shylock (Nelson Fernandez) to an Old Gobbo (Isauro Fernandez) who nearly stole the show in one scene, the cast demonstrated a competence and joy in their work that captured the hearts of the audience. Michael Noone's comic antics, Marty Foley's lively Antonio, and Terry Grauwiler, Toni Genovesi, and Phil McCaffrey as nobles in love brightened the stage and brought Shakespeare to life. We were lucky to have several talented girls working with us, and hope that they will be on the flight from Belmont to the South Pacific.

Stage Crew

The Stage Crew is a group of dedicated men who help keep Xavier's plays running smoothly. This group also assists with the lighting and P.A. systems at school assemblies. Thanks to Fr. White, S.J. (Moderator) and T.J. Goldsmith (Stage Manager) this year's Fall Production of the Merchant of Venice was a huge success. Congratulations on a job well done!

Audio Visual Club

(First Row) P. Duggan, C. Cockreham, J. Pinera, C. Berge; (Second Row) P. Trinidad, G. Persich, J. Ingoldsby, J. Mastraneda, M. Ross; (Third Row) Sr. Marian, J. Lim, I. Czernyk, S. Lupino, J. Gil.

(Front Row) J. Lim, Tech. Dir.; Sr. Marian, Moderator; J. Gil, Prod. Dir.; (Back Row) M. Ross, Asst. Producer; S. Lupino, Audio Manager

This year, Sr. Marian Healy, S.C. moderates the T.V. Club with Jorge A. Lim, Technical Chairman, and John Gil, Production Chairman. Our goals this year are fourfold:

1. To achieve expertise in the handling of studio and portable cameras;
2. To use audio equipment effectively to support the Video message;
3. To gain skill in writing original scripts as a prelude to the organization and production of T.V. skits, video newscasts, commercials, etc.; and,
4. Ultimately to serve the Xavier Community by taping sports events, plays, concerts, club activities, and special educational programs for the use in class and for entertainment.

Concert Band

The Concert Band is Xavier's democratic musical organization. The Concert Band is open to military and non-military proficient and beginner musicians alike. The band performs both classical and popular music at concerts throughout the school year. At Christmas the Concert Band performs both in church and at the school assembly that follows the Christmas liturgy. The musical year culminates in the annual spring Concert and Art Show, which features the Concert Band, and is scheduled for April 10 and 11, 1981.

Jazz/Rock Ensemble

The Jazz/Rock Ensemble was initiated to provide a challenging showcase for the most advanced musicians at Xavier. After the 1979 Spring Concert and the Xavier Talent Show, at which the Jazz/Rock Ensemble won first prize, the Xavier community has come to know the talent in their midst.

Christmas At Xavier

Perhaps the greatest time when Xavier's unity can be seen is on the final day before Christmas vacation or Xavier's Christmas Day. Just like families at home, the Xavier family share in small group liturgies and watch various productions. This year, the productions were given by the Jazz/Rock Ensemble, the Concert Band, and a new addition: Fr. Lundy and his Barbershop Quartet. Later on, Xavier Family watched as the Seniors and teachers participated in games of volleyball and basketball.

Radio Club

The Radio and Electronics Club operates radio station WA2JQT and works on electronic equipment of many kinds. The radio station gives students the opportunity to prepare for their amateur radio licenses by hands-on experience. Members participate in station operation, radio repair, and Morse Code practice. The station is capable of world-wide communication. Language is not much of a problem to "hams", since amateur radio has its own language. Nothing can describe amateur radio better than the thrill of talking with someone on the other side of town, the country or the world.

(Top): Fr. Lundy, S.J., Tim O'Neill, Jan Jedrych. (Middle): Pernell Morrison, Victor Ferriera, Peter McDonough. (Bottom): Thaddeus Siwinski, Robert Koljevina, Peter Young.

Ski Club

The Ski Trip is a rare event where faculty and students join for a day of recreation. The trips are a result of hard work and organization. The group goes skiing at Windham Mountain Club several times a year. The past trips have been full of pleasure and enjoyment for both students and faculty.

National Honor Society

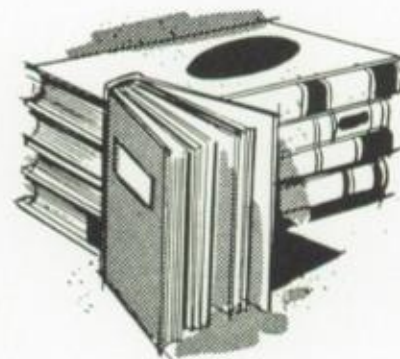

(Sitting) L. Ling, M. Gambello, C. Ares, K. Oz, M. McDermott; (Standing) J. Chin, A. Santamaria, A. Tjong, W. Seto, M. Cruz, M. Rey, A. Yap, J. Portelli, J. Callaghan.

(Sitting) W. Dixon, Mr. A. Nilles, G. Glasser; (Standing) S. Gonzalez, E. Laluz, T. Farmer, G. Coscenza, A. Filiato, J. McHugh, T. Patelis, L. Kast, M. McLoughlin, J. Gonzalez.

The National Honor Society is a nationwide organization of over 20,000 high school students who have been selected for membership on the basis of their outstanding scholarship, leadership qualities, character and service to the human community. All Xavier members achieved an academic average of at least ninety and have greatly contributed to Xavier through their dedicated service.

Math Club

(Bottom) D. Pantttieri, G. Persich, W. Ho, P. Chiu, W. Jaremczuk, S. Marrero. (Middle) H. Halligan, V. Dell'Accio, J. White, A. Fable, E. Nabab, G. Schmidt, J. Gonzalez, J. Chin, T. Siwinski, J. McHugh, Mr. Baker. (Top) J. Marshall, J. Kelly, R. Ros, J. Mastrandrea, G. Lozada. (Absent) M. Gambello

The Math Club meets regularly on Friday afternoons in the Math Center. During the first half of the meeting they discuss such topics as probability, number theory, topology, etc. The remainder of the meeting is devoted to solving intricate mechanical puzzles, some of them centuries old, playing math games, or matching wits with the numerous new electronic devices now available. The members are convinced that math can be a most interesting, challenging and enjoyable subject.

Chess Club

The Chess Club is a group of devoted young men learning the skills of one of the world's most intricate games. The moderator of the club is Mr. Brockert and the President of the club is John Callaghan. These two are devoted to producing talented chess players out of the members of their club. Their main goal of the club is to play matches against teams from other schools. In short, they are a group of fine young men who use their talented minds to master one of the oldest and mindtaxing games in the history of man.

Higher Achievement Program

The Jesuit Higher Achievement Program, run by Fr. E. Lynch, S.J., offers a chance to gifted young men to show their abilities in academic work. Part of H.A.P. is the 8th graders striving to do well on the high school entrance exam so that their potential blossoms to the fullest. Of course they could not do it on their own; thus the other part: Xavier students who serve as tutors and give abundant help. The Xavier students learn about giving up time to help others and they show what Xavier is like.

It is clear that Xavier offers both tutor and student an opportunity to develop academically, athletically and socially.

Riding Club

Xavier Horseback — something new! This is an instructional activity. We are learning to ride English style (as opposed to western). Two instructors are with us each weekly ride — either in the ring at the stables, or on the trails (Prospect Park, Brooklyn). Since we are building for the future, underclassmen are especially encouraged to join the team. We hope in a year's time to compete with other schools in horsemanship (equitation). As of this writing, we are learning now to jump hurdles. The activity goes on right through the year, every Friday after school. Weather never stops us. The cost: $6.00 per ride. Low keyed, high class.

Literary Magazine

(First Row) K. Oz, J. Hidalgo, J. Altmiller, R. Aldrich, F. Hissiger, Mr. Curley, moderator, R. Santiago, editor-in-chief. (Second) B. Davis, M. Johnston, B. Haynes, C. Emmanuel, F. Baker, F. Gonzalez, J. Rossiello.

The Xavier Literary Magazine has appeared, under various titles, including one in Greek, for the past four years. Under its present title, Original Energy, it welcomes and hopes to provoke work, in verse and prose, fiction and opinion, from the entire student body. The present editors, Roberto Santiago, Kent Oz and Calvin Emmanuel, are ready, willing and able to consider works in a broad sense of languages; they also need and request works in the visual arts.

This year's issues have presented outstanding literary works ranging from the controversial to an interview with actor Robert Reed. It is expected that the magazine and the talents of its contributors shall continue to grow and grow and grow.

Library

The Students' Library with its spacious reading room accommodates students from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. Beyond the reading room are the shelved books, among which is an outstanding collection of reference volumes. The pride and joy of the students' library, however, is its A-V Room where A-V materials and facilities are stored. This room did not exist 12 years ago, but through the pain-staking efforts of Miss Salvati students can now enjoy an invaluable aid. This year, sizeable additions in A-V materials have been made by Miss Salvati in the fields of communications, mathematics and science. It is important to note that the selection of these materials was the result of the cooperative efforts of the librarian, department chairpersons and the students.

Political Affairs Club

(First Row) P. McCaffery, M. Chohey, T. O'Neil, M. Cruz, (Second Row) G. Cosenza, E. Echegurin, G. Santos, J. Jedrych, A. Filiato, Mr. Donlan, F. Baker, J. Femia.

The Political Affairs Club is a relatively new organization in the Xavier Community.

The club acts as a platform from which the students can voice their political opinions and beliefs so that all might benefit from the exchange of ideas. This is done by several methods which include informal debates and free forums, where members can freely express their ideas to each other. Another important function of the club is to inform the overall Xavier Community about important social and political events and their effect upon our school and our lives.

For anyone who wishes to express opinions on the issues and events of the world or who wishes to learn about world politics finds the political Affairs Club a good experience. The club is still in its early stages, this being its first full year of operation, but hopefully it will develop into a valuable part of the Xavier Community. The leadership of Pres. J. Femia and Vice-Pres. T. O'Neill has been responsible for the success of the club.

Photo Club

The developing photographer first must learn to develop film and paper, then must develop an eye for a striking picture. Only with these two skills can he be both able and enthusiastic. The Photo Staff aims at serving Xavier's publication, but beyond this, we aim at seeing in the ordinary and expressing whatever is marvelous.

Newspaper

D. Sirola, Photo Editor; G. Santos, News Editor; Philip McCaffrey, Managing Editor; M. Cruz, Sports Editor; R. deCastro, Co-Editor-in-Chief; Fr. J. Dugan, S.J., Moderator; F. M. Caesar, Co-Editor-in-Chief; K. Oz, Assistant Photo Editor; F. Baker, Business Editor; and R. Santiago, Feature Editor.

A school newspaper should be a medium through which the students and faculty are informed about the various activities and events held at the school, both in the light of success and failure. It should also be a forum from where new ideas can spring and possibly advocate change.

This year the Xavier REVIEW attempted to be just that: a medium for news and a forum for ideas. By adding new editors to the editorial staff — business, copy, feature, news, photo sports — and by having two Editors-in-Chief instead of one, the REVIEW was able to successfully cover and write about different areas of the Xavier spectrum.

M. Gambello, asst. editor, Mr. 'B', moderator, J. Crapo, editor.

The work started in August when Mr. Francis X. Bambury and four seniors, John Crapo, Mike Gambello, Joe Ruggiero and Robert Cafaro, traveled to St. Bonaventure U. in Olean, New York, to attend a yearbook conference. They spent three days learning layout, design and cropping. The result of that intensive week and ensuing day to day job these four boys and the rest of the staff accomplished is the 1981 Yearbook.

This year's editor was John Crapo, and Mike Gambello was the assistant editor. The coordinators of the different sections of the book were Anthony Santamaria (Senior Section), Robert Cafaro (Underclassmen), Larry Ling (the Faculty), John Wood and James Gonzales (Sports) and Joseph Ruggiero (Activities); in addition Joe worked on the imaginative collages in each section. George Glasser supervised the photography with the help from Seniors Tom Evans and Arthur Tom and sophomore Pete Dell'Orto. The rest of the staff who did the day to day work like triplicating and cropping were seniors Pete Napolitano and Marty Deas and juniors David Sze, Larry Chin, John Rossiello and Stanley Wong.

This year's staff was by far the most outstanding one the moderator has ever worked with and will surely be missed. The book will stand as a tribute to their dedication, loyalty, talent and love for Xavier.

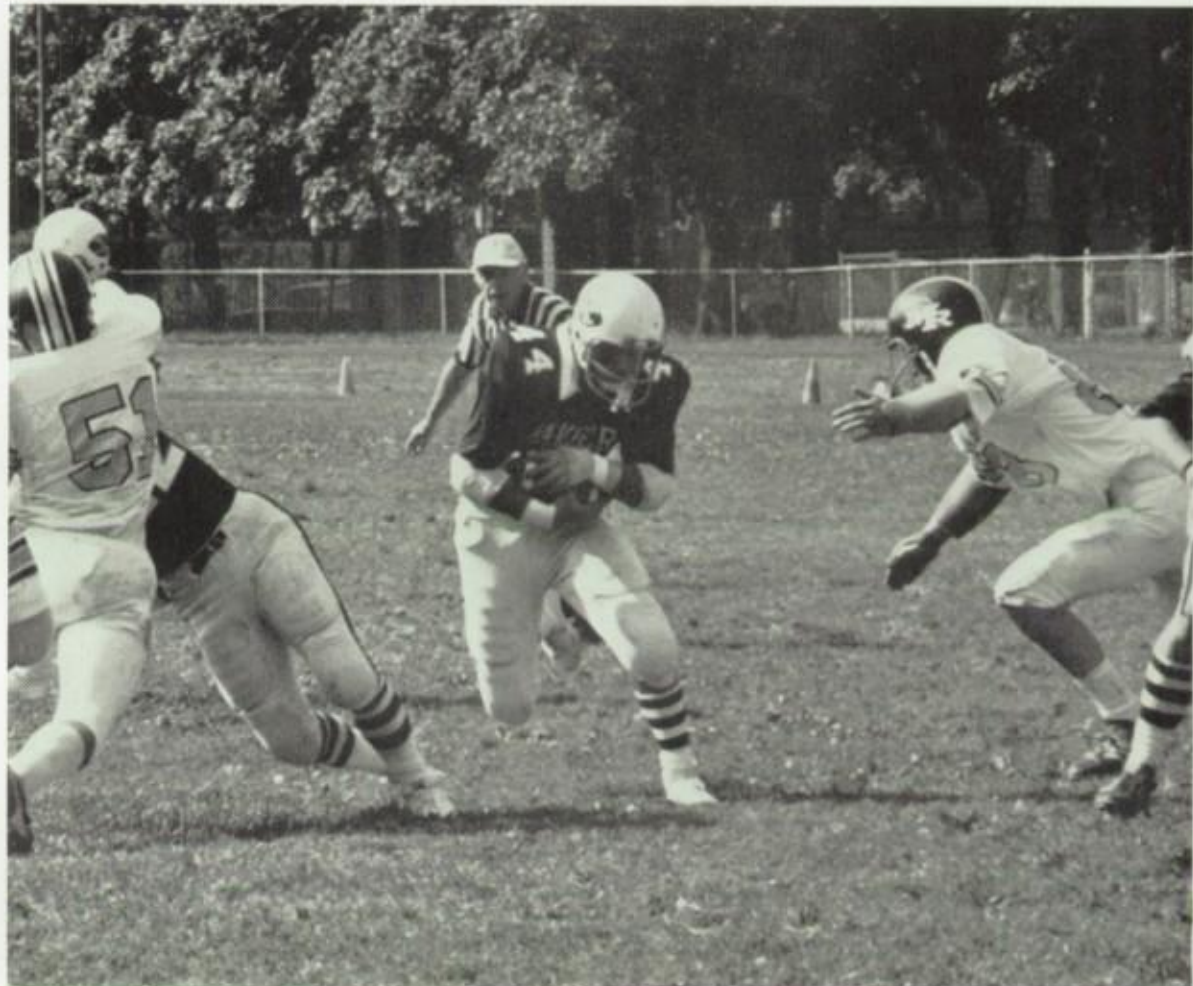

Varsity Football

The 1980 season has been one of upset and victory. Even though the Xavier Bruins were unable to clinch the Division II championship for a second time, they had an impressive season with a 5-4 record and a romp over Fordham Prep. This year's schedule was filled with stiff competition; there were many games with division I powerhouses. The team was plagued with injuries, but was able to come through as a true team does. Each game was a new experience and the Bruins gave it their best.

The team wants to express its gratitude to and thanks for the coaches, Mr. Capper, Mr. O'Neill, Mr. Ryan and Mr. Feher. The team wants especially to thank Fr. Lux for all he has done.

Next season will be another tough one with more competition. The Bruins are preparing themselves during the off-season for future confrontations. Best of luck in 1981.

J.V. Football

This year's Xavier Junior Varsity Football team, under new head coach Mike O'Mahoney and his first assistant Chris Madalone, was quite successful. The J.V. Bruins coming off a frustrating freshman season at 0-7, finished up in second place with a 3-1 division record and a 4-4 overall record in the C.H.S.F.L.

The only thing that stood between the J.V. Bruins claiming the division crown, was the two-point deficit in the Christ-The-King game. But this did not dampen the team's attitude as they rebounded and defeated their arch rivals, the Rams from Fordham Prep.

The J.V. Bruins proved to be competitive, both in victory and defeat. They showed this with a lot of heart and desire. Highly organized and well-conditioned, the J.V. Bruins excelled in all facets of the game.

After dropping the first two games of the season, the Freshman football team rebounded and finished the balance of their autumn campaign with four wins, one loss and a tie with perennially tough St. Francis Prep. Over these last six games, the team outscored its opponents by the margin of 80-40, ending the season with a 25-0 shutout over archrival Fordham Prep.

The offense, based on a solid ground game complemented by a strong passing attack, seemed to grow in confidence each week. The defense settled down as the weeks went by, yielding only two scores in the final three games.

Such marked improvement over the course of a long season was due in large part to the hard work of the players themselves, but in a special way to their dedicated coaches, Chris Mattura, the head coach and his two assistants, Mike Barbieri and Joe Ferreri.

The 1980-81 Xavier Dolphins turned in a near perfect year as the team ended their season as CHSAA Dual Meet Champs with a 9-0 record. On the final day of competition, the Dolphins lost to Msgr. Farrell in the Individual Championships. The 400 free relay team of C. Tesnakis, C. Butt, K. Keyes, and R. Geraghty, although breaking the school record with a time of 3:28.1, was beaten by Farrell and the meet was theirs.

The Swim Team was without a coach in the beginning of the season, but a new face, John Moran, came to Xavier and turned things around for the Dolphins.

Among the Dolphins biggest and toughest opponents were Bayside PSAL Champs, Chaminade Brooklyn-Queens Champs, and Horace Mann Private School Champs. Xavier handled all of these teams very well with no one coming within ten points.

Beside losing Co-Captains Al Yuen and Ron Geraghty, the team will miss Stefan Weiser, Dave Lynch, and Matt D'Anna. However, the strong underclassmen hope to keep the Dolphins winning next year as they try to take their fourth straight CHSAA Dual Meet swimming title. Congratulations and Good Luck in the future.

The Freshman Swim team had a nine meet season and finished with a 4 and 5 record in a tough CHSAA League which combined the Manhattan, Bronx, Staten Island Division with the Brooklyn-Queens Division. In the CHSAA Freshman Championships, the Medley Relay Team with Richie Berger in Backstroke, Charlie Mulham in Breaststroke, Gil Santaliz in Butterfly and Daryll Prince in Freestyle swam to a fifth place finish and the same foursome took a fourth place in the Freestyle Relay.

Though the team was numerically small, there were sufficient swimmers who did other strokes, backstroker Tom Smallman, breaststroker Chris Conniff, and flyer Joe Fernandez to fill the lineup. Combining all the strokes in the Individual Medley were Charlie Mulham and Robert Nolan. The Freestylers were Kevin Spencer and Ed Hoffman along with Divers Joe Campbell, Stan Fahey and J. P. Kennedy.

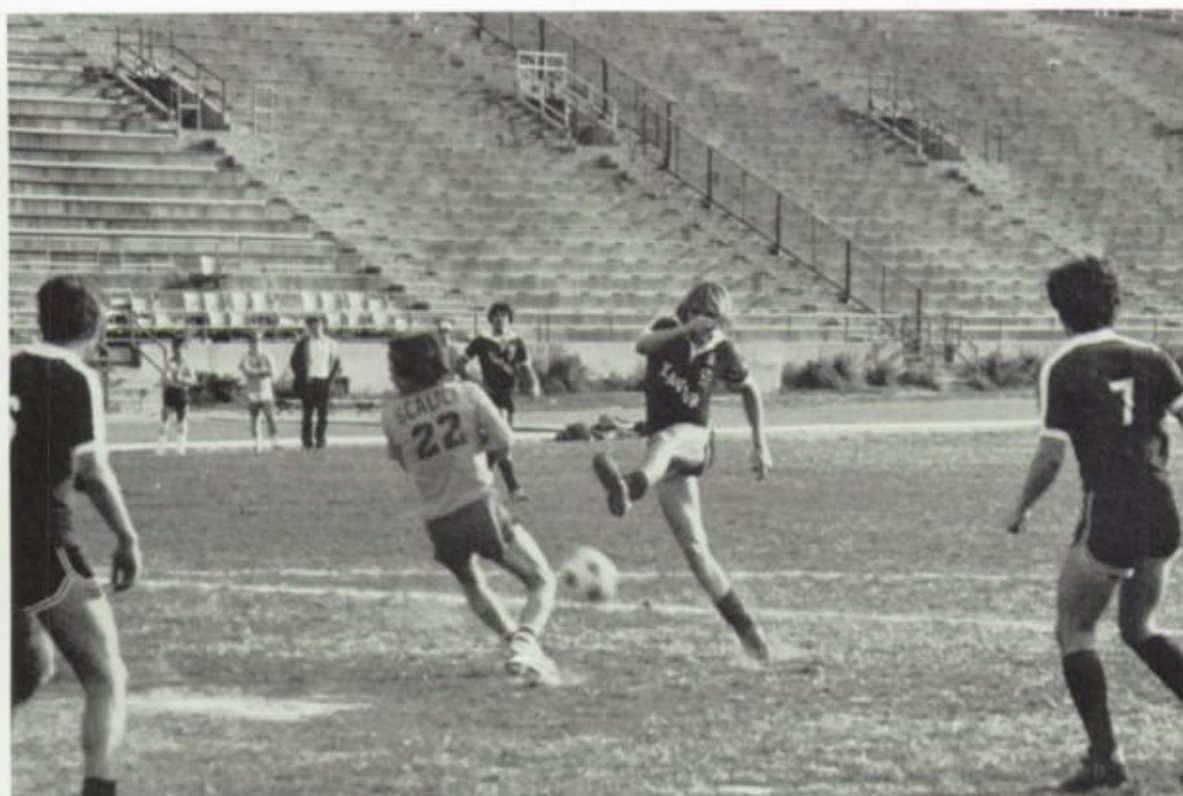

Soccer

Xavier's second year of participation in the CHSAA Soccer League produced tremendous success. The team was coached by Nigel Milton (who formerly played professional soccer in England's Division I) and began its season with a few days of tough workouts during August at Camp Regis. This helped form the core of the team. Captain Jim Buckley and Vice-Captain Pat Buckley led the team through a demanding schedule which ended in the semi-finals of the city championship. Chris Tolkin was the leading scorer in an offense which produced 47 goals. The defense was directed by Chip Gillen from his sweeper position, and strengthened (especially in the later part of the season) by an outstanding Freshman, goalkeeper Ken Thompson. Though the loss of senior starters Jonathan Russell-Anelli, Carlos Ares, Gerry Armstrong, Jim Buckley, and Steve Ramos will hurt, the team continues to hold great promise for the future.

Cross Country

The 1980 Cross-Country season was one of the best ever for the Cadets. The runners competed in a total of ten meets and won 136 medals. All meets were held at the Van Cortlandt Park demanding rugged 2 1/2 mile course.

The Varsity team was led by Andy Catalan and Bill McNerney. Their personal bests of 13:39 and 13:48, respectively, eased them into all city track and field positions; an accomplishment not surpassed in ten years.

The team is coached by Mr. James Scott and Mr. Joseph Fox. Special thanks to Mr. T. Baker, Mr. G. Febles and Mrs. Scott for their assistance.

The future looks bright for the team as the J.V. runners B. Kirwin, P. Lucas, G. Febles, J. Chohey and R. Villanueva will shape another fine season in 1981.

Indoor Track

Winning its twelfth consecutive indoor Jesuit team championship, this year's track team has carried on the excellence and competitiveness of its predecessors. Lacking the depth of the previous years, this squad has earned the respect of the CHSAA with its determination and versatility.

(First Row) J. McHugh, A. Catalan, S. Haynes, W. McNerney, G. Nelson, J. Houry; (Second Row) P. Martin, P. Lucas, N. Chung, M. Rey, T. Hildemann, A. Diaz; (Third Row) W. Kirwan, J. Girault, P. Miller, T. Holliman, H. Galeano, Mr. Scott, Coach.

(First Row) L. Romero, H. Martinez, G. Febles, R. Villanueva, F. Bonnemere; (Second Row) M. Matarazzo, M. Chase, W. Gonzalez, F. Morley, Mr. Scott, Coach.

Team Captains Andrew Catalan and Sterling Haynes have led the harriers by setting the example. Catalan established a new school record for the indoor two mile run and Haynes has led off several medal winning 880 yard relays.

Ablly abetting Catalan in carrying the distance load is senior Bill McNerney whose contribution to the team has been enormous. In addition, seniors John Houry and George Nelson, juniors Pat Lucas and Paul Martin, and sophomores George Febles, Hiram Martinez, and Roy Villanueva have shown great promise in the distance events.

In the sprints, senior Pat Miller, juniors Jean Girault and Tracy Holliman, and sophomores Francis Bonnemere, Wilson Gonzalez and Louis Romero all made significant contributions.

Freshman Cross Country

This year's Freshman Cross-Country team was one of the finest in the school's history. Led by Lennard George, who was elected to the CHSAA All-Star Second Team, the frosh Warriors placed second in the St. Francis Prep Invitational Meet and the third in the huge Manhattan College Invitational. Their poorest showing all season was a seventh place finish.

In addition to Lennard George, consistently outstanding performances were turned in by Chris Nolan, Danny Scott, Erich Maronak, Ryan Brackley, and Julius Zamora. The other members of the team — Jeff Marshall, Bill Kelly, Phil Martin, and Tony Costello proved themselves to be dedicated and talented runners.

(Kneeling): R. Brackley, C. Morrissey, D. Scot. (Standing): Mr. J. Scott, C. Nolan, J. Zamora, L. George, E. Maronak. (Absent): J. Marshall, B. Kelly, P. Martin, T. Costello.

Enjoying the most successful indoor track season ever achieved by a Xavier team, this year's freshman squad has a glittering future.

Characterized by talent, versatility, and depth, the squad placed second in the CHSAA Sectional Championships and accumulated 129 medals during the course of the indoor season.

Led by Lennard George, the freshman indoor 880 yard CHSAA Champion, the Maroon and Blue have rarely been out of the winners circle. With Ryan Brackley, Erick Maronak, Chris Nolan, Dan Scott, and Julius Zamora excelling in distances from the 220 to the mile; Rafael Calas and Carl Schmitt handling the sprints; and Terry Greene, Al Herrera, and Bill Kelly consistently scoring in the weight events — the Xavier track team would seem assured of continued success.

Rifle Team

The Xavier Rifle Team started off its season with a match against New York Military Academy. The Rifle Team easily outshot its first opponent. The team next participated in the West Point Invitational match on Jan. 17, 1981. The team fired against West Point, Crosby (the Vermont State champs), Spalding (the Connecticut state champs), and New York Military Academy. The competition was keen. The Rifle Team shot one of their best matches ensuring a fourth place position. The purpose of having a rifle team is to promote marksmanship, comradery, and esprit de corps in the Xavier Regiment.

Varsity Basketball

In recent years, articles written on the Xavier Varsity Basketball Team told of valiant efforts falling short, playing against great teams, etc. . . . This past season, however, was different. With six experienced seniors returning and a talented crop of juniors, the team posted a successful record. Playing in the awesome Bronx-Manhattan CHSAA Div. I the Warriors held their own. Wins over Rice, LaSalle, and Hayes moved the Varsity into the play-offs for the first time in three years. The highlight of the season was the championship win in the St. Joseph by the Sea Christmas tourney. Co-captains Joe Kenyon and Sam Gonzalez provided leadership throughout the season. Seniors Larry Lamphere (All Division), Mark Hopper, Fred Corti, and Bob Mackey all contributed along with juniors Chris Andrews, Mike Waitkus, Dan Pittaluga, Keith Farrell, John Belford, Ike Okeke, and Charlie Marquardt. Special thanks should be given to senior managers Anthony Filiato, Gil Cosenza, and Mike Cruz for their time and effort.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The J-V league record was 7-7 and our overall record was 10-12. The 1980-81 J-V Basketball Team was as good as any of the teams fielded in the past at Xavier. They beat Power Memorial, at home. They lost close games to Rice, LaSalle and Cardinal Hayes. They overwhelmed Tolentine, waylaid All Hallows and pacified Regis. They accomplished all of this with teamwork.

Jimmy Caster, co-captain, was the leading scorer and rebounder, and co-captain Joseph LaRoche played point and was voted the most valuable J-V athlete by the coaches and moderators, and was given the J-V award.

But a team is not just two players. Pat Carroll was hurt in the earlier part of the season, but continued to show enthusiastic support. Obi Okeke, Paul Kelly and Richard Communielli played in the guard spots, running the break and setting up the big men. John Regan, Eric Redding and Victor Antonini hustled on the boards and shored up the middle. Brian Slayne, Jimmy Karpowich and Michael Fay played the swing position, filling lanes and getting involved in the flow of the game.

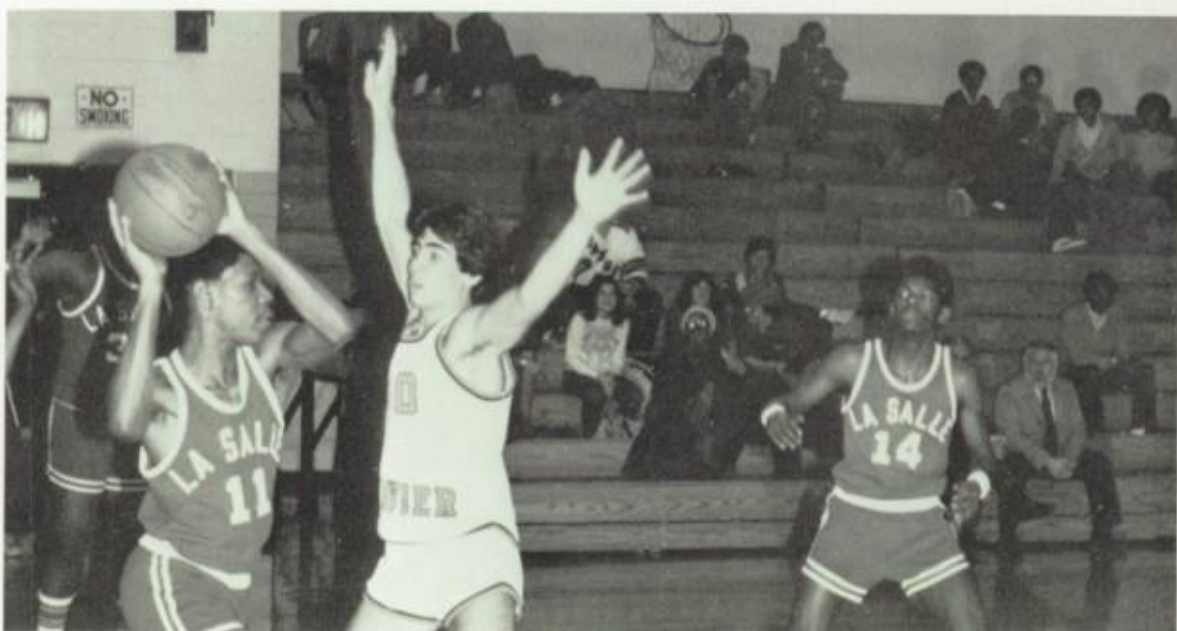

The Coach was Mr. Franklin N. Caesar, Moderator was Fr. Michael Fanizzi, S.J., and the managers were Tommy Concannon, James McEleney and Timmy Sullivan.

Frosh Basketball

The future of the Xavier Basketball program seems headed for some great seasons. One of the main reasons for this is the Freshman Basketball team. With what appeared to be a team of raw and inexperienced players, the Frosh became a top team in the CHSAA N.Y. division I. The Freshman finished the regular season with a 13-9 mark, which earned them a playoff berth, but the best had yet to come. With impressive wins over Msgr. Farrell and Cardinal Hayes, they qualified for the intersectional playoffs. With their continued hard work, they will surely bring many Xavier wins in the future.

This is the fifth year the Karate Club has been in existence at Xavier H.S. The club consists of more than forty members who practice the Kwon Do. This Korean martial art has retained the same basic forms and style which originated over two thousand years ago. In the fall, the Xavier club competed in the world Tae Kwon Do championships held in Portchester. The fifteen members who competed won a total of nine awards. Next year, the club's five purple belts should be ready for their black belt tests which would bring the total to ten black belts for six years. Congratulations to all the members of the club who have performed so well.

Jack McCarthy 1963-1980 May he rest in peace

Jack entered Xavier in 1977 and spent two full years attending classes, studying and worrying about passing courses like math, all the time knowing that he had a terminal illness. He had the courage and faith to believe in the value of his life to the very end. If any one is looking for a person to admire — and I'm thinking of the seniors whose pictures grace these pages — he has only to look to the life of Jack McCarthy for inspiration.

Life's fitful fever is over for you, Jack. Rest in the peace of the Lord and know that you were a man among men when you were with us.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Moderator and Staff of the 1981 Yearbook wish to acknowledge and thank the following people whose assistance ensured the successful publication of this year's book:

Fr. James F. Keenan for always encouraging and supporting our endeavors;

Fr. Joseph J. Papaj for adding his constant support;

Fr. Joseph F. Burke for his interest and concern in providing another successful summer workshop;

Mr. George Geer and the Delmar Company for their fine job of printing the book;

Fr. William R. O'Leary for the color pictures which added a new dimension to the Yearbook;

Fr. Patrick J. Sullivan for his dedicated time and assistance in proofreading;

Fr. Robert G. Lynch who provided the tower art work for our dividers and theme;

The Lorstan-Thomas Studios for their quality senior and faculty photos;

All advisors, coaches, moderators, and students who provided information and/or pictures of their advisement groups and activities.
